“ Ricky has been a part of my life since I was a teenager, when he met and married one of my "bonus moms," Pearl. After I grew up and moved on with my life, it would be a while before I saw much of Ricky and Pearl again. I began to play the piano with a group of folks, a little "band," who came to Dudneywood regularly. I also soon began to join them at nursing homes and other functions to play with the group who had become my "music family." Ricky and Pearl were part of that group. My health was touchy and Ricky would help me (and others in our group) load and unload our equipment and set up microphones and move pianos and carry instruments...whatever we needed. And he never left me without a sweet hug and a "See ya next time, young'un!" If he had never carried as much as a toothpick for me, it wouldn't change how much I will miss him and love him. Pearl, Rhonda, Rodney, and Stacy, and your family. I am so sorry for your loss.
